

Commercial

Your Waste

Commercial waste includes waste materials derived from commercial operations and includes all non-hazardous solid waste other than residential, industrial, and institutional waste.

Who you are

Commercial waste includes all waste generated by facilities, activities, or locations such as but not limited to:

- Malls, Department Stores
- Service Stations
- Restaurants
- Supermarket/Grocery Stores
- Office Buildings
- Hotels/Motels

Your Responsibilities

- Separate your waste according to the ICI Policy into clear/blue bags, and sort/dispose of all other waste
- Provide education and opportunities for your staff and customers to follow the policy when working with your business
- Connect with the Regional Outreach Officer for WRWM for information and resources that will help you be compliant with the ICI Policy

Generator-Hauler Responsibilities

Should you choose to engage a hauler to handle your waste, it is recommended by WRSB that you have a written contract in place that will protect both you and your hauler, and ensure proper separation and delivery to transfer stations

You are required to comply with the ICI Policy as well as federal and provincial regulations

Schedule of Fees

The ICI Policy is being closely monitored for effectiveness and will be updated periodically with information uncovered during the initial phase of its launch.

It is strongly recommended that you implement the recommendations within this policy and begin making necessary changes that will allow you to comply with the guidelines.

Non-Compliance Fees are added to the load when there is a blatant or egregious lack of compliance to the policy; including but not limited to: Contaminated recycling and recycling bags and improperly sorted hazards.
